

Nelson R. Diers, DDS

Nelson R. Diers, DDS, MDS has been practicing Orthodontics for forty years! He is a Board Certified Specialist with a Master of Science degree in Dentistry.

Dr. Diers takes every chance to further his education and knowledge. He has a passion for his studies. He is a member of the orthodontic Faculty at Indiana University and is a former faculty member at the Medical College of Georgia, Department of Orthodontics.

Dr. Diers offers a full range of specialty treatments including: Interceptive Care and Growth Guidance, Orthodontics for adults & children, Surgical Orthodontics, TMJ Therapy, and Dental Sleep Therapy. Dr. Diers practices state of the art specialty care using the most advanced technology available.

He is a Design Advisor for Orthodontic materials and a Scientific Evaluator for the American Journal of Orthodontics and the Angle Society of Orthodontics. He is certified to teach courses for the Ohio State Dental Board. Dr. Diers has held positions such as the President of the Keely Dental Society, President of the Ohio Valley Orthodontic Society and President of the Greater Cincinnati Dental Study Group.

Dr. Diers served in The United States Navy as a Dentist, assigned to the Marine Amphibious Brigade, during the Vietnam War. Dr. Diers has been married for over 35 years! He has three grown children and two adorable granddaughters. He also has a Cavalier King Charles Spaniel, Wallace!

In his free time, Dr. Diers enjoys Cincinnati sports, playing tennis, golf, and traveling with his family.